F050476 Farias v. Howard

Appellant purports to appeal from an order of the trial court dismissing his action without prejudice, a nonappealable order. [citation] On June 22, 2006, the court notified the parties that it was considering dismissing the appeal as taken from a nonappealable order and invited comment within 30 days. Appellant has not responded to the court's invitation. Consequently, this appeal is dismissed as taken from a nonappealable order.
